

The Miquon School

Miquon Matters, 10.8.18

Last week in Louis and Jeri's class, students participated in an architect-led charrette, synthesizing information into a series of garden and chicken coop plans. In the upcoming weeks, students will divide into groups to take on the final design and construction!

Your Action Items

1. Classroom potlucks are being scheduled by your class parents! Look for them on the Google Calendar!

2 Check out the latest Grandfriends' Day (Oct 12) information below, including parking details. Direct questions to charlotteb@miquon.org.

GP Day Info

3. Cold season seems to be here early! Remember sick children must stay home for 24 hours after a fever breaks, or 24 hours following the first dose of antibiotics.

Always let us know when your kids are sick, and please consider flu shots for your family. Thanks!

Seeking Your Help

*Thank you to all who have picked up and posted yard signs! You are the best. . .
aaaaand if you haven't done so yet, we still have many to hand out (wink)!*

Open House Helpers

Can you tour around a small group at our Admissions Open House on Oct 20?

It is easy--you just have to share your personal experience with families, and we'll give you a script with some specifics.

If it's a "yes!" please contact Andrea at andream@miquon.org.

Campfire and CampOUT

Sat, Oct 20

3:00 pm

After the Admissions Open House, you're invited to the annual Community Campfire, a chance for families to hang out, eat s'mores and sing songs together. Please BYO mugs for hot cocoa and such. Also, BYO pumpkin to paint at this event!

Current families are asked to please welcome any Open House guests who may stay for the s'mores and campfire event. Thank you!

Campout

And after the campfire? You're invited to SLEEP OVER AT MIQUON. Join our Community Committee Chairs and their families for a good old-fashioned campout. BYO dinner, tent, and other camping gear (also note, this is a dry event--no alcohol please).

Enjoy a pancake breakfast in the Moore Building when you wake up!

RSVP

If you're planning to campout, please RSVP to charlotteb@miquon.org.
