

The Miquon School

Miquon Matters, 11.19.18

A huge thank you goes out to all parents, students, and staff for your patience and graciousness in dealing with the weather last Thursday! We'll announce this part again: In the future when we dismiss early due to weather, you may come get your child as soon as possible (and before the official closing time) if you wish!

Your Action Items

1. Some of you missed conferences due to weather-related school closure. Pam Feinschil will be reaching out to you to reschedule your date/time shortly.

2. Do you have a younger child who might attend Miquon next year? If so, note the admissions deadline is Fri, Dec 7.

How to Apply

4. RSVP for a Miquon parent event: Wine tasting at the Commons home on Sat, Dec 1!

Radnor Speakers Series: Voice Lessons for Parents Weds, Jan 16, 7:00 pm

Radnor Speaker Series welcomes clinical psychologist, New York Times best-selling author and international public speaker Dr. Wendy Mogel. Drawing from her recently published book, Voice Lessons for Parents, as well as her widely read Blessings of a Skinned Knee, Dr. Mogel will focus her talk on ways parents can more effectively communicate with their children through changes in their posture, tone, tempo, and word choice.

Her must-see presentation will also address the distraction of digital devices, how they impact our connections, and what we can do about it. With a few "voice lessons" for parents, Dr. Mogel will share how family conversations can be transformed.

Space is limited and seats are filling up very quickly.
