

The Miquon School

Miquon Matters, 12.17.18

Your Action Items

1. All-school pajama day is this Thurs, Dec 20--all varieties of pajamas are welcomed (kids can also feel free to opt-out if they wish)!
2. See you at Winter Assembly on Friday. While many children choose to dress up for this event, there is no formal dress code. Please have children wear what makes them comfortable and happy!

3. Book your Vacation Care needs no later than this Thurs, Dec 20 to avoid closures due to low enrollment!

Reserve Your Spot

4. There's some important deadlines and events happening in January! Check the Calendar!

5. We are actively seeking to re-establish our cadre of substitute teachers. If you know someone with experience in elementary education, please send them to miquon.org/employment! Thanks!

Contribute to Annual Giving with United Way

'Tis the season of giving! Consider making a gift to support Miquon's Annual Giving Campaign. New this year: Miquon can accept donations through the United Way.

If your workplace participates in the United Way giving program, direct your donation to Miquon--our donor number is 54676.

Thanks Unicef Fundraisers!

Diane and Jeri's group has announced a total of $1,801.17 was raised by Miquon families for the Trick or Treat for Unicef drive.

Thanks to all who contributed and asked others to contribute--the funds will help provide meals and school supplies to those in need!

Last Friday at assembly, we were treated to the music of City Love--a group focussed on diversity and equity and empowering children to make change. Check out their music at www.muchcitylove.com.

Nanny or Housekeeper Available

Are you (or is someone you know) looking for an amazing nanny or housekeeper? Look no further! Nellie Ocampo worked as a nanny for a Miquon family for more than seven years before they moved out of state. She has been working with babies and young children for 25+ years and she is an incredibly thorough housekeeper as well. She is patient, kind, meticulous, conscientious and caring. References available. Please call Nellie directly at 215-908-9782.
