

Miquon Matters, 2.25.19 Addendum

We neglected to include this important entry in Miquon Matters yesterday!

This year, the third and fourth grade classes are excited to continue the Cradles to Crayons partnership. As many of you know, Cradles to Crayons is a non-profit organization that provides low-income Philadelphia children with "essential items they need to thrive -- at home, at school, at play."

Cradles to Crayons accepts gently used clothes, toys, school supplies, and baby equipment.

Bring in Donations by March 7

Please review the list of acceptable donations and bring your items to the Miquon Office or to the 3/4 classrooms no later than Thursday, March 7. Thank you!
