New for you: Monthly news & updates

We have received word that you want to hear from Miquon more often! And here you have it: a reimagined newsletter for alumni, donors, and families that will arrive on a monthly basis to keep you up-to-date on all the latest at school. We want to hear from you too; PLEASE keep the lines of communication open, and reach out to us anytime!

Update from the Creek

It has been a year and a half since the Miquon Creek Restoration Project was completed. The actual restoration work took about five weeks to complete, and the big question now is "Did it work?!"

Remember to make your gift to the Miquon Annual Giving Campaign by the end of this calendar year! Gifts directly support our students and financial aid.

2017-18 Outlook from Board President Lisa Zahren

Just as both of my children learned how to be good stewards of this community as kindergarteners, the Board of Directors is charged with caring for Miquon as an institution. Our focus is long-term and strategic, but the principles are the same.
