

The Miquon School

Miquon Matters, 3.4.19

On Sunday, our Miquon children were so proud to showcase their artwork at The Barnes! "We are grateful for the children's agency and collaborative spirit evident in their approach to The Art of Math Challenge" said First and Second Grade Teacher Celia Cruz of their participation in The Barnes Museum project yesterday.

Your Action Items

1. Don't forget to sign up for your parent-teacher conference date and time no later than March 6; your assignments will be distributed by email March 13!

4. Need Summer Vacation Care between school and camp? Miquon Vacation Care is open 8:00 am - 6:00 pm the weeks of June 17, Aug 19 and Aug 26!

Summer Care

5. Speaking of camp, Miquon Day Camp offers swimming twice a day, dedicated bus transport from the city, and pre- and post-camp care. It's a great option for busy families!

Camp Registration

Reading for pleasure inside and outside of school has real and long-lasting benefits. Please come to our book fair during Parent-teacher Conference Week (March 18-21) and help shape your child's reading habits.

Our Book Fair is open for parents to shop during conferences. Be sure to stop in and pick up a few books for your child(ren), your child's classroom, or even the Miquon library! Scholastic will be providing wonderful selection of engaging and affordable books for every reading level, and all purchases provide a portion of the proceeds to school.

You can also follow the link below to shop the Virtual Book Fair!

Tea Collection

Thinking of buying a few new pieces of clothing for your child as spring and summer approach? From March 4-11, when you shop at the children's clothing retailer Tea Collection, you'll receive 15% off your purchase and Tea will donate 15% of your purchase to Miquon. To take advantage of this promotion, visit TeaSchoolDays.com and create an account. Then when you checkout, enter promo code SDS19MIQUON. You'll also receive free shipping.

Let us know if you have any questions, and let us know if you like this kind of fundraising/shopping opportunity by emailing charlotteb@miquon.org.

Last week, children in Diane and Sarah's fifth and sixth grade group shared the memorials they each made for the subject of their biography studies this winter. They hosted a gallery-style sharing for Miquon staff, so that visitors could tour the room and speak with the creators!

Parenting Children with ADHD: 3 Essential Strategies Thurs, Mar 14, 7pm, Center Schl, 2450 Hamilton Ave, Abington

Several decades of research have provided extensive support for interventions that lead to improvements in academic performance and self-regulation for children and teens with ADHD. Making these interventions work for families starts with parents having a solid understanding about the nature and treatment of ADHD across the lifespan.

Dr. Michael Cassano will explain these interventions in detail and will provide tips for how to make treatment work for you and your family. Dr. Cassano is a licensed clinical psychologist and owner of Dragonfly Psychological Associates. His specialty is working with families of children, teens, and young adults with ADHD and anxiety.

Laurie Halse Anderson Book Release Author Event Thurs, Mar 20, 7pm, McShain Performing Arts Cntr, Rosemont College

Children's Book World presents a book release event in celebration of Laurie Halse

Anderson's new book, Shout. Anderson is known for the unflinching way she writes about, and advocates for, survivors of sexual assault. In 1999, her groundbreaking, award-winning novel, Speak, opened the door for a national dialogue about rape culture and consent. Now, 20 years later, she reveals her personal history as a rape survivor in her new searing poetic memoir.

Laurie will be in conversation with Madeline Miller, New York Times best selling author of Circe. This event is for mature audiences only. Children under 13 will not be admitted.
